Kacey (around 5-years old), was found heavily pregnant, dumped in the street because her owner apparently didn't want to sterilise her.

On Wednesday, 1 November Kacey started giving birth and eight beautiful puppies later, she settled down and proceeded to encircle them with her paws, constantly nudging and fretting if one moved away. She was obviously nervous about protecting her babies and only Sharron could approach..... we definitely don't want her to feel even more anxious.

Tank was one of the puppies..... they are of course, all beautiful! We suspect that Tank will be quite large.
